

6516208145.txt

Need the traffic and weather station for my job. They are on my list for subscribing to XM. There are places where reception is terrible for local information. Can't people "quit trying to fix things that are not broken" and be more concerned with fixing problems instead of creating them. Keith Buchberger